By combining hand-blown technique with mold manufacturing, a smooth trumpet shape and three-dimensional vertical lines are created. The amber gold coating is as warm as the fading light of the setting sun.

Each vertical line is precise and neat, reflecting dynamic light and shadow under the light. Without any additional decoration, they can be placed on the table or at the entrance, instantly becoming the "artistic focus" of the space, suitable for modern minimalist, artistic light luxury and other styles.

This glass candle holder features a unique vertical stripe trumpet shape, injecting artistic tension into the space. The transparent glass holds the warm candle light. When lit, the light flows along the vertical stripes, creating a soft and layered atmosphere. It serves as both a fragrance container and an aesthetic piece that brightens life, making each lighting session a dual visual and olfactory delight.
